This Demand, However, Faded Away as Stocks Took Upward Tendency.

SOUTHERN LED WEAKNESS Rumored That Dividend Would Be Passed—Money Rates Were Easier.

NEW YORK, January 9.—The pressure to sell stocks, which appeared urgent and precipitate yesterday, was decidedly moderate to-day, and after a short time gave place to some inclination to buy.

The position in which the Harriman companies are placed by the Interstate Commerce Commission's inquiry was a factor in restraining any renewal of large speculative ventures.
